It is precisely women's experience of God that this world lacks.
 A world that does not nurture its weakest, does not know God the birthing mother.
 A world that does not preserve the planet, does not know God the creator.
 A world that does not honour the spirit of compassion, does not know God the spirit.

God the lawgiver, God the judge, God the omnipotent being have consumed
 Western spirituality and, in the end, shrivelled its heart.
