YOUR PARISH

In Clones Parish there are 1240 households.

Sadly, a percentage of these do not ask for envelopes. Of the envelopes distributed last year, one quarter were not used and others were used very infrequently.

Considering that at least 100 people's contributions were in excess of €700, it means that other envelope holders, especially those who contributed little or nothing, are in effect being 'carried by the few.' No one is ever refused a wedding, a baptism, or a burial. Questions are not asked as to whether or not a parishioner requesting a ceremony is contributing to the upkeep of the parish. It is fortunate for them that others are doing so. In today's terms you can liken this to the person who uses the wi-fi being paid for by his next door neighbour.

The maintenance and care of the parish is the duty and responsibility of all parishioners. It is, after all, your parish. It is where, in the year 2021, 43 children were welcomed into the Christian faith community, 7 couples exchanged vows in matrimony and 97 were prepared for and received the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation. As well as this, the parish community of Clones celebrated the funerals of 45 parishioners. This kind of service cannot happen without priests.

The maintenance of the parish and the ability to pay the bills - electricity, heating, insurance, web-cam service, office costs, upkeep of the buildings, grounds and cemeteries, as well as paying annual levies to the Diocese - depends entirely upon the income generated through the contributions of parishioners.

When a parishioner, who is a tax-payer, contributes through a method that can be recorded, the parish can claim back up to 35% of the tax paid through the Gift Aid and Charitable Donations Schemes. This is tax you have already paid that would otherwise remain with Revenue or HMRC.

An examination of the figures for the last year shows that:

- 24% made no recorded contribution
- 14% contributed 1 - 100
- 38% contributed 101 - 500
- 20% contributed 501 - 1000
- 4% contributed in excess of 1000

Those who 'put their money in the basket', without an envelope, contributed a total of just under 4%.

But 100% of the bills have to be, and are, paid.
