

Ulster Canal Stores Painting Workshops. Canal Ware was a popular and colourful form of folk art once used to decorate barges and items in the 19th century. Canal Stores are delighted to be able to offer free workshops in this traditional style of art, which will be delivered by local artist Joanne Behan. A children's workshop will take place on August 14th, for ages 8 and over. Two adult classes will take place in September. This is part of a project kindly supported under the Waterways Ireland Heritage Plan 2016-2020. All materials are provided for this free class which is sure to be popular, so places must be pre-booked by phoning Dianne on 047 52125.

The Irish Cancer Society offers a free local transport service for patients undergoing chemotherapy and attending one of the following hospitals for treatment - Our Lady of Lourdes, Drogheda, Cavan General and the Mater hospitals. A driver will pick you up at the door of your home, drop you off at the hospital and then, when finished treatment, will collect you and drop you home. This is a free service and patients may bring a companion with them for support. To access the service please speak to your oncology nurse or Social Worker in the hospital or for more information, please call Laura on 01 2310 594 or email transport@irishcancer.ie

Monaghan Volunteer Centre. The Peace Link is running a 3 day summer camp from 20th to 22nd August for children with disabilities and their siblings. Volunteers are needed to help staff run various games and activities and supervise the children and young people. Failte Isteach. Training will be provided for new tutors in September, so sign up over the summer and be ready to go. The Clones group in particular would welcome new volunteer tutors for their classes on Tuesday mornings in Clones Library. To find out more about volunteering or to enquire about finding volunteers for your organisation, please contact us at info@volunteermonaghan.ie or phone 047 72191.

Call out for Clones Lace Memorabilia The design of the Ulster Canal Store's new and interactive Clones Lace Exhibition is now underway. As this museum will incorporate images and content of the social history of Clones Lace, people are being invited to provide photographs/memorabilia or personal stories of ancestors making Clones lace. Photographs and letters will be scanned and returned immediately, and items chosen to be included in the Exhibition will acknowledge the donor. Please contact Dianne or Kathleen on 047 52125 if you can offer assistance. The support of the community in informing others and contacting people overseas will be appreciated.
