We welcome the return of Fr Jim to the parish this week and wish him continued good health. The priests in the pastoral area took on the workload of both Fr Jim and Fr Dick (RIP) and for this we give them our heartfelt thanks. The office staff particularly appreciate the support and guidance given by Fr John Chester over these past months. It is important that we take on board the workload for one priest in a parish this size. Going forward, if you are invited to help out in parish please remember that in doing so you are contributing to the future health of the parish as a whole.
