Fr Jim appreciates the prayers and kind wishes from everyone in the Parish. He is currently resting and recovering at home. Please keep him, and all our sick, in your prayers.

Clones Parish Bingo every Friday night in St Tiarnach's Primary School at 8.00pm. Jackpot €4,400 (subject to no winner on 18th).

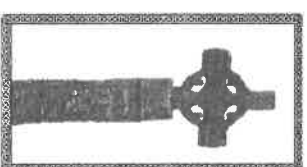

World Day for Grandparents and Older People The Parish Pastoral Team are working on a special Mass to acknowledge the contribution of this valuable group of people in our Parish. The theme for 2025 is, "Blessed Are Those Who Have Not Lost Hope" (Sir 14:2), and honors the steadfast trust in God that Grandparents and Older People embody. The Church needs Grandparents, and Grandparents need the Church. You, your children and grandchildren, are invited to attend Mass in St. Macartan's Church, Aghadrumsee, at 10.00am and Sacred Heart Church, Clones, at 11.30am on Sunday 27th July.

Pope John Paul II Award Group thank all those who contributed to their recent Handbag Appeal. Fermanagh Women's Aid were delighted to receive 25 handbags filled with comfort items to support women at a time of need.

Clogher Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock – Wednesday 6th August – The Parish of Galloon are organising a bus to Knock. Please contact their parish office at 028 67737935 (ROI 048) for further information.

Slane Sunday on 3rd August. Celebrate our Catholic faith on the hill where St Patrick lit the first Paschal fire in 433AD. This is a unique opportunity to witness the Archbishop of Armagh symbolically light the fire of faith, hope, and love, first kindled by St Patrick. Eurovision's Dana will sing her song for St Patrick, 'Light the Fire'. Starting at noon it will include Mass, Eucharistic healing and the Rosary. More information can be found at lightthefire.ie or email info@lightthefire.ie
