Fr Gabriel has just returned from a short trip to Kenya where he revisited his old missions. As part of his visit to Mombasa he brought gifts and greetings to three schools that he helped establish. Thanks to the generosity of the children and staff of Scoil Eois, St Macartan's and St Tiarnach's, he provided them with books, games and sports equipment. The Kenyan children were extremely grateful for the kindness and sang hymns of appreciation. This little initiative of children helping children has had a huge impact. Asanteni sana (Thanks a million)!
