Fr Tommy Flaherty, a priest with the Society of African Missions (SMA), will be saying Mass in the parish on the weekend of 22nd/23rd June. He will be speaking about the work the SMA priests carry out in various countries throughout the world.

There will not be a mission collection, but he will leave envelopes in the churches for people to take and put a donation in. These envelopes can be returned with your parish envelopes the following week and they will be passed on to the SMA Fathers.
