

Volunteers needed for WMOF2018

The World Meeting of Families 2018 will attract thousands of Irish and international pilgrims. Organising it and seeing it through will only be possible with the help of thousands of volunteers.

Approximately 2,000 volunteers gave their time, abilities and service to help organise and run the 50th International Eucharistic Congress which took place in Ireland in 2012. If you volunteered for IEC2012, the team at WMOF2018 would love you to sign up and be part of next year's gathering in Dublin. If you have not volunteered before, the WMOF2018 team would be delighted to have you.

Volunteer roles will include stewards, welcoming and information teams, photographers, media support, logistics, programming support and all the general day to day roles involved in running an event like the WMOF2018.

There are currently 1300 volunteers signed up for WMOF2018. The first training event for volunteers took place in Dublin on October 19th. Speaking after the event, Richard Brennan, WMOF2018 Volunteer Project Manager said; "Our volunteers are vital to the success of the World Meeting of Families. We are inviting people to sign up now so we have time to work with them and to offer them the necessary training to deliver next year's gathering in Dublin.

One of the things we are looking for volunteers to do is to help deliver the famous Irish welcome—the Céad Míle Fáilte. So join us. You can sign up on our website, email us at volunteer@worldmeeting2018.ie or you can contact us by telephone 01 5676800."
