

Monaghan Mental Health Association will take up a church-gate collection next weekend, 26th and 27th October. They are a voluntary organization involved in actively promoting positive mental health and supporting people who experience mental health difficulties in Monaghan. As a voluntary group they rely on donations in order to fund their projects. The money collected will be used throughout Co. Monaghan to promote positive mental health (particularly in our young people) through education projects in schools, and to actively support those with mental health difficulties, their families and carers. Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us the way out of darkness into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human,
more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

In this "Extraordinary Month of Mission, it is worth reflecting on these powerful words of Pope Francis, and especially so here in Ireland where more and more we are speaking of "mission" in the Church, rather than "maintenance". In many ways the missionary option should come as second nature to us here in Ireland, with our proud tradition of missionary outreach. But to be truly in "mission mode" within Ireland will mean opening ourselves up in the Church to a new way of being, a new way of thinking, a new way of praying, a new way of communicating our teaching."

The theme "baptised and sent" is clearly meant "to rekindle in every baptised person that sense that we are all called to mission, to witness, to teach, to win others for Christ."

Archbishop Eamon Martin
