Message of Pope Francis for the 58th World Day of Peace

Forgive us our trespasses: grant us your peace. Listening to the plea of an endangered humanity At the dawn of this New Year given to us by our heavenly Father, a year of Jubilee in the spirit of hope, I offer heartfelt good wishes of peace to every man and woman.

More concretely, then, Pope Francis recommends three actions that can truly mark a path of peace: the forgiveness of the international debt; the abolition of the death penalty; the establishment of a World Fund that will definitively eliminate hunger.

Happy New Year!

For migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.
