Advice Pope Francis gives to families

Always remember to say Please, Thanks, Sorry...In good times learn how to be open and communicate, so that you will be able to continue to do so in times of difficulty.

Celebrate happy moments, and individual successes and support each other in the difficult passages of life. Value everyone's achievements, however insignificant they may appear.

Respect each other's freedom. Everyone needs space, some more than others. An awareness of individual needs gives people a sense of being trusted and valued.

Give a kind look. Never underestimate the value of a gaze of love.

Learn to forgive. Before we can forgive others we must learn to forgive ourselves. Be slow to point out the limitations of a loved one.

Listen to older members of the family tell their stories and, in particular, encourage children and adolescents to do so.

Be slow to judge another whose situation you do not fully understand.

Always find time for family prayer, even a few moments every day.
