'Pause for Hope' The Catholic Cathedral of St. Patrick's, Armagh, will host an ecumenical prayer service on October 15th at 3.30pm for all those whose lives have been touched by cancer. The aim of Pause for Hope is to help people who have been affected by bringing together in prayer, those who have, or have had cancer, their loved ones, those who care for them, doctors, nurses, those who have responsibility for providing resources, and conducting research. Bishop Michael Ruter, Auxiliary Bishop of Armagh, will lead the service. The preacher will be Archbishop John McDowell, Church of Ireland Archbishop of Armagh, and during the service a person affected by cancer will speak about their experience. The musical accompaniment will be provided by organist Colm Murphy and the Cathedral Choir. Following the service, light refreshments will be provided in the Synod Hall. Everyone is welcome to attend.

“Blessed are the Peacemakers”

We pray to You O Lord, through the intercession of Your Most Pure Mother Mary, give to the people of Russia and Ukraine the gift of peace, for you have given us all else: A peace that all of us share in the passion and wisdom that is the Lord Jesus Christ. The peace of the Sabbath, and the peace that knows no evening. Stir up in the hearts and the minds of our leaders and politicians a longing for peace, that brings real joy and our hearts will be restless no more.
